INDIAN VILLAGE ANNUAL

PUBLISHED BY THE

CLASS OF 1938

UPPER SANDUSKY HIGH SCHOOL

. F O R E W O R D

We, the class of nineteen hundred thirty-eight, are publishing this book in order to present to you, and to remember ourselves, a more intimate side of our high school life.

During the past four years we have all labored with the same common purpose in mind—to prepare ourselves in the best possible way to take our places in the world.

We shall forever cherish the memories of the happy times we have had during our high school days and the friendships we have formed.

We feel that it has been made possible for us to reach our goal only by the co-operation of the faculty and we wish to thank them.

If, in years to come, this imperfect little volume will recall a vivid account of the high school days during the year of 1938 then we shall feel that we have not failed in our purpose and our efforts shall have been rewarded.

Dedication

GRACE SLEMMER

To show our sincere appreciation and gratitude we wish to dedicate this publication of the Indian Village Annual to Miss Grace Slemmer.

For her efficient service to Mr. Moore as secretary, we wish to congratulate her and for her friendliness and guidance to the students, we desire to thank her.

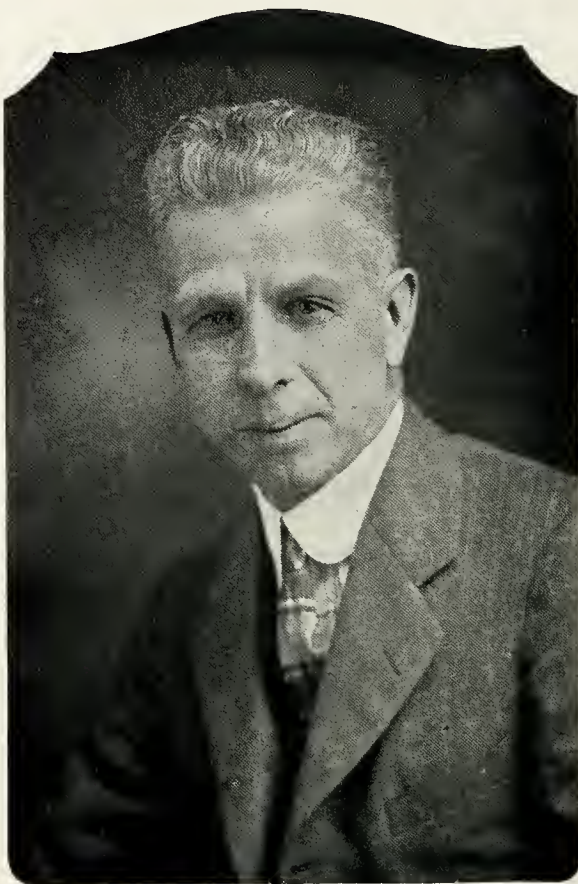

BOARD OF EDUCATION

We, the seniors of 1938, take this means in showing our appreciation to the Board of Education and to Superintendent Moore for the efficient management they have given to our school. The class, along with all the other pupils, wish to thank these members for doing all that they could possibly do in broadening our education by adding new subjects and seeing that they are properly taught.

The "Board" is composed of J. H. Witzel, President; T. M. Bowman, Vice-President and committee on teachers and salaries; P. W. Ayers, Clerk, Treasurer and committee on grounds and building; C. E. Frederick, committee on text books and course of study; W. P. Osborn, Purchasing Agent, and W. O. Moore, Superintendent.

UNION SCHOOL BUILDING

FALL

Seventh Grade

The President of the Seventh Grade is Richard Moon; Vice-President, Barbara Bowman; and Secretary, James Walton.

Miss Alban is the class sponsor.

There are ninety-five members in the class.

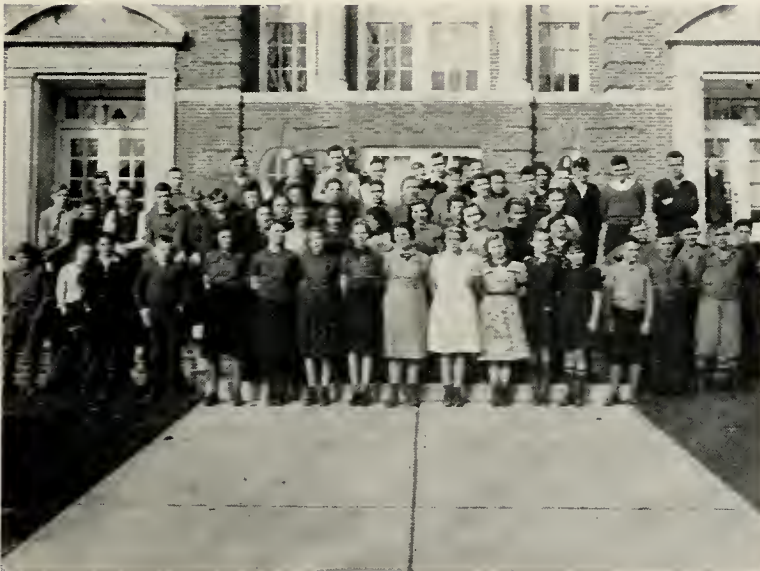

Eighth Grade

The President of the Eighth Grade is Dick Lucas; Vice-President, Dick Gaver; Secretary, Marilyn Henry.

Miss Schoenberger is the class sponsor.

The class is composed of seventy-two members.

Freshmen Class Officers

The Freshman Class chose Franklin Roby to lead them through their first year as high school students. He has proved their choice to have been wise by managing their affairs to the best of his ability. His cheerful face and participation in athletics and other school activities make school seem a pleasure.

William Wood, the Vice-President, adds the zest to the class. It was his duty to assist the president in guiding the class.

Donna Schwabel, the Secretary-Treasurer, has done her part by keeping the financial situation out of the red.

Freshmen Class History

Freshmen history really started at the first meeting during which officers were elected. Several other meetings were held during the school year with good attendance. The sponsor and officers were highly responsible for the success of the class.

The high spot of the year was the Freshman Party which was held on April first. The members, as well as those of the faculty who attended, considered the party a success.

The class earned most of their money by keeping the check-room at the basketball games.

ATHLETIC BOARD

The Athletic Board this year is made up of Mr. Cope, President; Mr. Houpt, Secretary-Treasurer; Mr. Osborn, Clerk of the Board of Education; and the coaches, Miss Miner, and Mr. Hutton.

Along with their work, they purchased new football and basketball suits which were appreciated as much by the student body as by the teams.

Perhaps the greatest task of this Board was the sponsorship and organization of a baseball team. So far the team has been met with great success by defeating Carey and Nevada High Schools. The team will enter Class A Tournament at Kenton May 13-14.

We wish to express our appreciation to this Board for helping make our school year a success and we pledge our co-operation in the future.

BETTY CRAM.

Football Season of 1937

As the football season of 1937 drew near, the members of the team learned that they were to have a new coach. This man was Mr. Robert Hutton. Mr. Hutton, a former Findlay College football, basketball and baseball player, received his Master's Degree at the University of Michigan. He is a man of ability, entirely capable of handling his job, and is well liked by all who know him.

For the opening game Upper traveled to Mt. Blanchard, where they reversed last year's score with that team by defeating them 20-0. With this encouraging start Upper went to Fostoria to defeat St. Wendelin 6-0 in a hard fought night game. This was Upper's first encounter under the lights. The next week, on Upper's only Saturday football game, they were defeated by a score of 20-0 by the heavy Harding High team from Marion. The next game brought Calvert High, a powerful and fast team from Tiffin to our field. Upper again met defeat 33-0. The next week Upper journeyed to Mansfield to play Madison Township, a newcomer to their schedule, and were defeated 20-0. Again Upper took the road, this time to battle Marysville. A fourth defeat was met 12-0. The next week saw us on our own field against Ada. Upper led at the half 7-6 but was unable to keep this lead as the game ended 12-7. Upper was now scheduled to face Crestline, a team considered one of the best in the league. The visitors were given a surprise and trailed 6-0 as the fourth quarter began. After a series of attempts, Crestline succeeded in tying the score and the game ended 6-6. The final game, with Carey, was the most exciting of the season. As the fourth quarter began, Upper trailed 7-0, and with but three minutes to play staged the most amazing comeback ever seen by its followers by getting two touchdowns, the game ending 12-7.

Considering the inexperience of most of the team, Upper had a successful season, and next year's team should set up an even better record, with eleven lettermen returning.

The team selected for its honorary co-captains, Donald Iles and William Bauer, who proved in every game that they really deserved the honor.

The team wishes to thank the teachers, students, cheerleaders, the band, and managers for their support during the entire season.

WILLIAM BAUER

"Bill" played both at the end position and in the backfield. He was a fine ball carrier and pass receiver, with plenty of speed. He was a hard-hitting tackler and will be missed next year.

JOHN DAY

"Johnnie" was a good end and stopped the ball carrier when he came his way. He had fine ability as a pass receiver and will return next year.

DONALD ILES

"Don" alternated at tackle and in the backfield. As a lineman he was always on the alert and few plays got by him. In the backfield his fine plunging kept the team out of many a tight spot. He will be missed next year.

JUNIOR ILES

"June" played end as it should be played, and was always a menace to the opposition. He had fine ability as a pass receiver and tackler. He will play again next year.

EDWARD KARG

"Ed" proved to be a fine center and the ball always found its man at the right time. On defense, Ed backed up the line and prevented many a long run. He will be back next year.

FRANKLIN ROBEY

"Frank," although only a freshman, rated varsity and did some outstanding playing. He was a clever quarterback and a fine passer. He has three years ahead of him.

CARL SCHWABEL

Carl showed fine ability as a backfield man and was hard to stop. He was a fine blocker and tackler. He will play again next year.

NORMAN SMITH

"Red" had a knack of breaking through the line and spilling the interference and was a good tackler. He played tackle and was a good blocker. He will not be back next year.

Football

LaVERNE WEATHERHOLTZ

LaVerne played a fine game of guard and tackle. He has plenty of grit and pep and will be back next year with the best of them.

CHESTER SHAMBAUGH

"Chet" proved he could take it by coming back from the injured list to play as hard as ever. A good guard, he will be back next year to keep up his record.

DAVID SPELLERBERG

"Dave" played tackle and proved his ability on both the defense and offense. He often opened up a hole for the team. He will be missed next year.

MERVIN STANSBERRY

"Merv" played a fine game of guard and was always in there fighting. He was a valuable man to the team and will be back next year.

THOMAS ULRICH

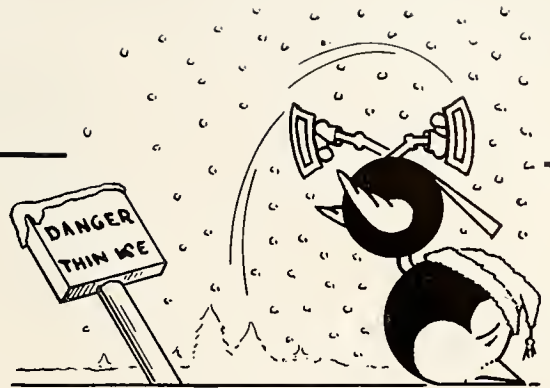

"Tom" had hard luck, being injured near the beginning of the season, and was unable to play much. However, he proved his ability and will be back next year.

ARTHUR WHEELER

"Art," at the guard position, broke through the line to stop many a play before it got started. With his ability he will be a great asset to next year's team.

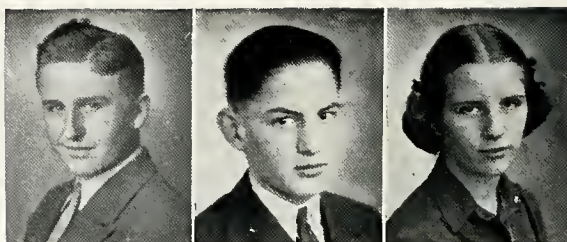

WILBUR ZIMMERMAN

"Wilb" was our fastest ball carrier and was very hard to stop. He was not only fast, but shifty as well. On the defense he was a fine tackler. He will return next year.

WINTER

The officers of the Sophomore Class were elected as follows: Paul Smythe, President; George Pfeifer, Vice-President; and Barbara Fritchie, Secretary-Treasurer.

Paul Smythe, a boy of great ability, was selected because of his friendliness with his fellow students as well as his ableness in carrying on the difficult task of president. It is his duty to preside at all meetings and appoint the various committees for the class party.

George Pfeifer was unanimously selected as vice-president by his classmates because of his pleasantness and good humor. It is his duty to preside in the absence of the president and to work with him in their program.

Barbara Fritchie has the difficult and unpleasant task of collecting money, as well as keeping the minutes of the meetings. She has performed her work faithfully, and her class can well be proud of her.

Sophomore Class History

In September, 1936, a group numbering seventy-five entered Upper Sandusky High School full of eagerness for the future. They chose Teddy Blaser as president, Robert McClain as vice-president, and Virginia Wilson as secretary-treasurer. The class held a very successful class party at the close of the year, which was well attended.

In the fall of 1937 these students, now numbering about seventy, proudly entered the Senior High School building as Sophomores. At their first meeting they elected Paul Smythe, President, George Pfeifer as Vice-President, and Barbara Fritchie as Secretary-Treasurer. In December the class held a Christmas party.

And now as the year draws to an end we are already looking forward to next year when we hope to be as successful as Juniors as we were as Sophomores and Freshmen.

Junior Class Officers

Shortly after school started in the fall, the Junior Class assembled to select those people whom they thought best fitted to serve as officers of the Junior Class. They chose four people who have been with them from the beginning of their high school career.

Paul Gilliland was elected to be president. He has presided at class meetings and fulfilled his duties as president very competently. He takes part in almost all the school activities and is one of our best athletes. Paul Courtad, our vice-president, adds the zest to our group. He is very spirited and many are the times we have laughed with him at his sayings. We find Doris Lawrence to be capably fitted to fill the office of secretary. She adds dignity to our group. Madelon O'Brien, our treasurer, takes an enthusiastic part in all school affairs. She handles the business of her office very well.

REBECCA HILL.

Junior Class History

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty-nine, set sail on the first lap of our journey in the fall of nineteen hundred thirty-five. We all started our climb upward as deck hands. On this first lap of our voyage we chose as our leader, Paul Quail; and for his helpers, Madelon O'Brien and Janet Moser. We passed through the happy port of our Freshman Class Party around Christmas time.

In the fall of nineteen hundred thirty-six, we began the next lap of our journey as second class mates. Mervin Stansbery and his helpers, Rebecca Hill, Pauline Amert, and Arlene Fox were elected as guides for this voyage. The most important port on this journey was the Sophomore Class Party.

In September, nineteen hundred thirty-seven, we started the third lap as first class officers. We selected Paul Gilliland, with his helpers, Paul Courtad, Doris Lawrence, and Madelon O'Brien to charter our course safely through this year. They guided us through the ports of our Junior Class Party and our first class play, "Spring Fever." We worked hard to reach the port of the Junior-Senior Banquet.

We have completed these voyages successfully and are working toward the goal of being upper classmen—Seniors, and the captains of our own ships!

My Responsibility as a Citizen

The Upper Sandusky School is proud of the fact that a Junior, Mary Jane Kail, was one of the winners in the State American Legion Essay Contest. The following is Mary Jane's essay:

My responsibility as a citizen is part of my every day activities which takes a great deal of studying and thinking before acting if I am to be a good citizen. A citizen of any nation is one who owes allegiance to its government and is entitled to its protection.

I think that a part of my responsibility as a citizen is doing the duties of a citizen. If I am to be a good citizen I must know the laws and obey them and assist in their enforcement. I will take a part in the affairs of my community and co-operate with its other members in making it a better place in which to live. I, as well as all citizens, have the privilege of voting; and it is a privilege which I, as a voter, will exercise with care, thoughtfulness, and honesty. I believe a very important responsibility for me is to prepare to earn a living for myself and for those who are dependent on me for support.

Another important part of my responsibility as a citizen is my loyalty to my country, myself, and my friends. Perhaps many people only think of being loyal to their country, but loyalty does not stop there. I, as well as every other citizen, should know the important events in the history of my country and always be ready to uphold its traditions. Some of us might sincerely believe our country is not always right especially should it go to war with another country. Most of us, however, feel that unless we stand ready to defend our country whether it be right or wrong, we might have no country. Then where could I and all other citizens turn for protection of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness?" I must also be loyal to myself. I want to make myself efficient, being constantly in control of myself. I want to be able to know at all times what is the best thing to do for my own good and the good of others and to have enough power to do as I know I should.

If I am to be a good citizen and always do my part, I must respect the rights and possessions of other people. When men have been elected and laws made, it is my duty as a citizen to respect their authority even though I might not always agree with them. Of the many groups of which I am a member the home is the one that is nearest to me. Here I first practice and test my citizenship. The home is the center of all that is finest in the life of our people. It is in my home that I learn my first lessons in obedience, respect for the rights of others, co-operation, friendliness, reliability, and sympathy. It is in the home that I get my first instruction in American traditions, customs, manners, and ideals.

If in my childhood I develop habits of obedience, loyalty, respect for the rights and possessions of others, and other social and civic virtues, I will find it easy to carry out my responsibility as a citizen.

Junior Orchestra

The Junior Orchestra, like the Junior Band, furnishes for the student thus inclined, a valuable opportunity for the preliminary training necessary for the admission into Senior Orchestra.

The Orchestra boasts of twenty-one ambitious members who meet every Wednesday for conscientious practice. Under the capable direction of Mr. Assenheimer, they should, in the future, become valuable members of the Senior Orchestra.

Junior Band

The Junior Band is composed of twenty-six members of rising musicians who accomplish much under the direction of Mr. Assenheimer.

These students practice diligently every week in order that in the future they may comprise the personnel of the Senior Band. This preparatory training is required of every student wishing to play in Senior Band.

Junior Chorus

The Junior Chorus consists of two groups of girls and one group of boys who sing separately. Miss Artz directs them and accompanies them on the piano.

This group of pupils from the Junior High meet every week to practice their songs and choral selections, drills, and scales. Occasionally they have music appreciation in which they listen to musical selections played on the victrola.

"Spring Fever"

For the first time in many years the Junior Class presented a play, entitled "Spring Fever." The proceeds of the play will go for the annual Junior-Senior Banquet.

Under the capable direction of Miss Evelyn Neumeister, the play met with great success.

It was given in three acts all of which took place in the rooming house at Brookfield College, owned by a Mrs. Spangler. It was true when she said, "I never know if they're in or out. They come and go so fast you couldn't keep track of them if you were a paid spy." On the day before Commencement, the girl friends kept popping in and out, a few parents and an aunt show up, and "Prexy" and Professor Bean find occasions to call several times. In spite of the trouble and complications the play ends as all plays should—a very happy ending.

KATHLEEN WITZEL.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Immediately after the football season ended, Coach Hutton began the basketball training, with an experienced team answering his call. The team developed rapidly and gave stiff opposition to all their opponents. They showed fine speed and co-ordination on the floor at all times.

Basketball

WILLIAM BAUER

"Bill" always fought a hard game in his guard position, and had plenty of speed. He was another high score man. He will be missed next year.

FRANCES HETZEL

"Franny" has a lot of spirit and plays a hard game. He will return next year.

DONALD ILES

"Don" was tall and helped keep the ball in Upper's possession. His ease in handling the ball and his scoring ability made him a valuable player. This is Don's last year.

JUNIOR ILES

"June" has good teamwork and his height will be an advantage to next year's team. He always plays a hard game.

FRANKLIN ROBEY

"Frank" shows great promise as a basketball player and plays his best at all times. We're counting on you next year, Frank.

Basketball

EVERETT SCHECK

Everett has plenty of speed and plays a hard game at all times. He will return next year.

CHESTER SHAMBAUGH

"Chet" gave the game all he had and shows fine possibilities. He will return next season.

MERVIN STANSBURY

"Merv" always played a fast, hard game and was a high score man. He will be back again next year.

THOMAS ULRICH

"Tom" was our scoring ace, and always fought a hard, clean game. He will return again next year.

WILBUR ZIMMERMAN

"Wilb" always played a hard, fast, game and could keep control of the ball. His scoring ability always helped the team. He will play again next year.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The basketball season for the girls this year has not been such a successful one, as one will notice as he glances over the schedule on the opposite page. The team won only three games, tied one, and lost nine; but they honestly believe they lost to better teams, which is no disgrace to any team. The fact that the squad had only six of last year's players back, only three of these with letters, may help to explain their defeats. However, the players, both old and new, showed a great improvement in efficiency at the latter part of the season which gives a brighter prospect for a better team next year.

MARGARET MINER
Coach

The team will lose only two players this year, Betty Hehr and Priscilla Wilson.

This is Coach Miner's second year and she has helped greatly with her ever enduring patience to develop sportsmanship in the girls.

Jessie Withrow and Geraldine Koehler also deserve recognition for their work as managers.

Girls' Basketball

MARTHA LOU HARE

An excellent guard and a grand sport.

BETTY HEHR

Betty was always fighting for her team and will be greatly missed next year.

KATHLEEN HEHR

Always a fair and co-operative player.

EVELYN LARICK

She was faithful in training and seldom missed a practice.

LINDA LARICK

She may be small, but she is mighty.

JUNE McMURRAY

Although this was her first year she has proved herself a capable player.

ANN MOLONEY

Already a letterman with three more years to play.

AUDREY NEWMAN

With her height and ability she was an invaluable asset to the team.

Girls' Basketball

MADELON O'BRIEN

A good guard with plenty of fighting spirit.

MARGARET RUSSELL

A friend to all and always willing to do her part.

DONNA SCHWABEL

Another of the Freshmen who made good.

ROSEMARY SPELLERBERG

Another Freshman; it will help to watch this girl.

PATRICIA VIVIAN

Only a Freshman but she shows the qualities of a good player.

ADDA JANE WEEKER

Nice work, Adda Jane. You'll come in handy next year.

PRISCILLA WILSON

Captain Wilson, a good sport and a good worker.

MAXINE BINAU

Although ill most of the season, Maxine proved her value to the team.

Girls' Physical Education

In the classes this year, we have taken up four major sports: Basketball, Soccerball, Volley Ball, and Baseball. There are about sixty-five pupils participating in these sports this year, under the able guidance of Miss Miner. At the beginning of the year the classes were divided into squads, and tournaments were held.

We have also taken up marching, pyramid building, relays, darts, tennis, and tumbling. These activities require practice, but everyone enjoyed taking them very much.

The Senior High Gymnasium was the scene for a Sailors' Play Day, which was held April 9, by the Senior High Gym Classes. We invited seven county schools to participate in this nautical affair, each school being represented by eight girls. During the afternoon different games were played, dividing the group in crews with a girl representing each school.

Altogether, we girls feel that this has been a very successful year, and wish continued luck to future classes.

BETTY HEHR.

Boys' Physical Education

A group numbering 65 boys ranging from the seventh to the twelfth grades belong to the Boys' Physical Education Class this year which meets every day the sixth and seventh periods.

The class has taken up each sport in its season, including Football, Volleyball, Basketball, and Baseball. This group will be our future athletes and we should be very proud of them.

Vocational Agriculture Department

The vocational agricultural department started the school year with an enrollment of 43 regular high school students and one post-graduate student. This is an increase of four students over the previous year when the department was first established. Eleven Junior, Senior, and Post-graduate students are enrolled in the Farm Management course, seventeen Sophomore and Senior students are enrolled in the Farm Shop course while 37 Freshmen, Sophomore, and Junior boys are enrolled in the Animal Husbandry course.

The class in Farm Management is using one farm in the community as a basis for the study of the principles of farm management. The class has made several trips to the farm for study, field measurements, and arrangement, and to collect soil samples from the entire farm. These samples were tested for mineral deficiencies in order to determine the fertility requirements of the farm. At the conclusion of the study the class will prepare a booklet of findings on the farm and recommendations for improvements.

The boys in the Farm Shop class learn the fundamental tool operations and acquire the skills necessary to perform the ordinary shop jobs that every farmer has to do.

The class in Animal Husbandry makes a study of the livestock and poultry which are common to this community. Problems in the care and management as well as principles of feeding, breeding and selection for improvement are especially emphasized. The boys have livestock and poultry projects on their home farms to actually put into practice the principles taught in the class room. A complete cost account record is kept on each project.

Girl Reserves

The Girl Reserves have been successfully led through 1937 and 1938 by Miss Pease as adviser and Miss Neumeister as assistant adviser. The officers for the year were: President, Geraldine Koehler; Vice-President, Mary Janet Sweigard; Secretary, Sally Hare; Treasurer, Betty Cram, and Reporter, Kathleen Witzel.

The subject, "Windows," was carried out in the meetings.

The year was started with the annual gypsy hike, followed by a Christmas party for the poor children, a Washington's tea for the mothers, and a few parties with the Hi-Y group. Hobby groups have been organized endeavoring to better the girls' leisure time.

All activities of the Girl Reserves are designed to lead to the fulfillment of their slogan, "to face life squarely," and their purpose, "to find and give the best."

KATHLEEN WITZEL.

Hi-Y

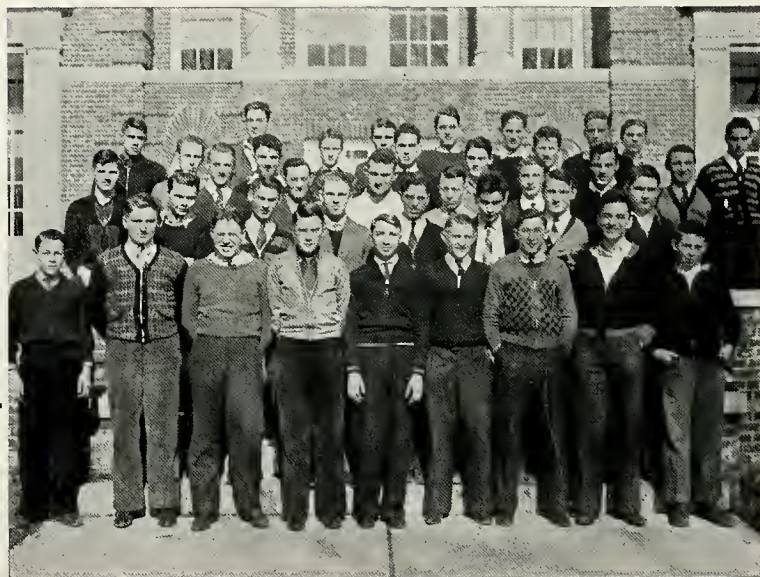

The members of the Hi-Y Club pledged themselves to help one another in the keeping of this covenant—to create, maintain, and extend throughout the high school and community high standards of Christian character and to stand together on and for the platform of clean speech, clean scholarship, clean living, and clean athletics.

At the beginning of the year, the club officers: David Spellerberg, President; Edward Snyder, Vice-President; David Stephan, Secretary; and William Bauer, Treasurer, planned a program of the activities for the entire year. A special activity aside from the regular meeting was planned for each month. The meetings are held on the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

The activities for the year were: September—Induction of new members; October—Hamburg fry; November—Hi-Y and Girl Reserves rabbit banquet; December—Christmas party for poor children; January—Coasting party planned, but no snow, pot luck supper; February—Hi-Y and G. R. Valentine's Day party; March—Swimming at Tiffin, banquet for athletic groups with G. R.; April—Hike.

The Hi-Y consists of 43 members, who have been successfully guided through another year by their supervisor, Mr. Tschantz.

PRISCILLA WILSON.

Spanish Club

El Circulo Castellano was off to a flying start in September, guided by our adviser, Miss Helen Pease who had just returned from a motor trip through Mexico.

One of the new features of the year was when Miss Antoinette Lowry of Columbus came here to show the moving pictures she took in Mexico last summer. All of the Spanish students and a few interested teachers were present. The high spot of the evening was reached when the colored pictures of a bull fight were shown.

Many interesting letters were received throughout the year from South American correspondents. In this way a feeling of friendliness was carried on between the two countries.

The officers of the El Circulo Castellano were: President, Mervin Frank; Vice-President, David Stephan; Secretary, Betty Cram; and Treasurer, Sally Hare.

KATHLEEN WITZEL.

Sodolitas Latina

Two very interesting meetings were held by the Latin Club, one in the Hallowe'en season and another in April. Fine discussions on Roman myths, famous Roman person-ages, and Roman customs were given by the students, and they enjoyed singing Roman songs.

The Virgil class consists of thirteen members with the following officers: Katherine Beidelschies, President; Elsie Clinger, Vice-President; Mary Janet Sweigard, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mary Jane Eatherton, Program Chairman.

The class is exceedingly grateful for the able leadership of their friend and teacher, Miss Erma Stearns, and this year have progressed greatly in the study of Virgil.

Phonetic Writers Club

Modern life demands all those qualities of excellence for which training in business education assumes direct responsibility—excellence of materials, of performance, of service, and of human qualities.

The Phonetic Writers' Club, through its daily functioning in the senior shorthand classes, sets up and maintains a pace of excellence which sends forth students with personal and technical ability to shape and promote high standards in the business world of tomorrow.

Debate and Public Speaking

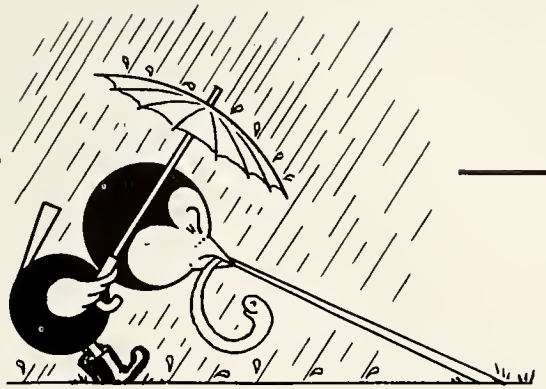

The debate class this year is composed of three Seniors, Katherine Beidelschies, Laura Belle Lawrence, and Robert Walberry; one Junior, Albert Hogan; and two Sophomores, Teddy Blaser and William Appleman. The team is doing no debating outside of school this year, but rather are studying the fundamentals and principles of debating.

The public speaking class has twenty members. The first semester was spent in the study of public speaking. The class was divided into two sections. Each of them worked out a one-act play which was given as competition to each other.

Both of these classes were coached by Mr. Tschantz.

Senior Class History

During our first three years in high school we, the graduating class of nineteen hundred thirty-eight, looked forward to that far-off time when we should be Seniors. Now that we quite incredibly find ourselves in that lofty position, we begin to realize the grand times we have had in high school, the many close friendships we have formed during these four short years, and the profits we have gained from our experiences here. We also begin to realize and value the genuine interest which our teachers have extended to us and the opportunities we have had of discussing our problems with them.

From our Freshman class we selected John Fritchie as president, with two able assistants: Mary Janet Sweigard, Vice-President, and Laurel Jane Wolfe, Secretary-Treasurer. The special remembrance of this class was the class party held February 22.

In our Sophomore year we elected Edward Snyder President; David Stephan, Vice-President; Jane Kinley, Treasurer, and Laura Belle Lawrence, Secretary. This year the class decided to be different and held a hard time party in the spring, which will be remembered by all those who attended as one of the most successful parties during their high school career.

At the beginning of their Junior year little did the class realize how quickly the next two years would pass. Their leaders this year were Mervin Frank, President; Sally Hare, Vice-President; Geraldine Koehler, Secretary, and Jane Kinley, Treasurer. The class did realize, though, that the Junior-Senior Banquet, which they had to sponsor, came too quickly and then was over all too quickly. The class was proud of this very gala affair, and felt that it was one of the best ever given a Senior Class.

When the present year opened we found ourselves the dignified Senior, and we hope the pride, of Upper Sandusky High School. At the beginning of the year it was hard to realize that three years in high school had passed. What made it more difficult to realize was that we had attended all three of those years in such a seemingly short time. We find ourselves wondering if we had suddenly awakened from a deep slumber, and that it's all a dream. It must be true because I seem to remember that our leaders this year were David Spellerberg, President; Katherine Beidelschies, Vice-President; Kathleen Witzel, Secretary, and Richard Bolyard, Treasurer. Again the realization of it all is assured me when I recall the good time we had at the class party in the spring. Also, the pomp and ceremony of the banquet which was given us by the Juniors. The memories of this, the last party of our high school career, will be cherished and treasured for years to come. Thanks to the Junior Class!

Honor Students

David Spellerberg, the Senior class president, received his position by unanimous consent of his fellow classmates. His participation in school activities, his scholastic attainments, and his genial disposition has qualified him for the position of class president.

The Valedictorian, Elsie Clinger, won this honor through strict and persistent work during her high school career. She well deserves this honor placed upon her.

Daniel Cowgill is Salutatorian. He also, has attained this position by the same hard work as the Valedictorian.

The Class Orator, Mervin Frank, has well proved his right to this title. He has ranked high in all scholastic activities and in the annual Ohio Senior Scholarship Test.

Senior Class Play

"GROWING PAINS"

Presented by the Senior Class on Friday, May 13.

The story is laid in the patio of the McIntyre residence in a university town in northern California. It is the dilemma of the family, consisting of Professor McIntyre, abstracted to the point of deafness at times; Mrs. McIntyre, warm-hearted, deeply maternal woman; George, the son, a youth on the borderline of seventeen, just emerging from the awkward age; and Terry, aged fifteen, a blithe young miss in the tomboy stage.

These two children, average young Americans, in company with the neighborhood kids, are tossed in the throes of adolescence.

Laughter piled upon laughter as the play progressed and little bits of genuine pathos were deftly interspersed, made the pattern complete. Many things happened to all of them, but the end was bright and promising. The play was one of delightful humor.

This play made use of a large number of characters and included one-half the members of the Senior Class.

The following was the cast of characters:

Extra Girls: Ruth Sammet, Evelyn Rush, Joan Voelker, Betty Cram, Mary Janet Sweigard.

Stage Manager: Mervin Frank.

Publicity Manager: Daniel Cowgill.

Business Manager: William Bauer.

Indian Village Annual Staff

The Class of 1938 wishes to express its gratitude to our editor-in-chief, Laura Belle Lawrence. We feel that our successful Annual is the result of her carefully planned ideas and we know that she spent long hours in perfecting them.

Laura Belle was selected by the class after many days of voting, and we feel sure we could have made no better choice. Unless one has to perform such a task himself, he cannot appreciate the amount of time and hard work that is needed to complete such a great undertaking.

The business manager, Daniel Cowgill, has shown patience and ability in securing the money that has made this book possible. It was for him to see that all the annuals and the required number of advertisements were sold. There were many bills to pay and money to collect. These all called for an utterly dependable and tactful person. We found such a person in Daniel.

We also wish to thank Mr. Suber and the rest of the staff for their very valuable assistance and co-operation. It took the whole group working together loyally to produce this book for you.

Orange and Black

Although there have been changes made in the staff during this school year the Orange and Black News has not failed in making the school news very accurate and interesting. Mr. Cope, the faculty adviser, has always given his assistance in helping to make this paper a success. The Orange and Black News was published bi-weekly the first half of the year, but during the latter half, the staff has been printing a paper nearly every day.

At the beginning of the year donations were received by the staff in order that the paper could be given to every pupil.

KATHLEEN WITZEL.

Senior Band

Fifty-seven capable students, all wearing their Orange and Black uniforms, make up the personnel of the Senior Band this year, which was organized this September by Mr. Assenheimer. They meet for practice every morning.

The Band is an invaluable part of our school and community since it adds pep and color to our football games, participates in holiday festivities, and is host every year at the annual festival to the bands of our neighboring schools.

George Angles and Charlotte Hehr were the drum majors and Creighton Moon acted as flag-bearer and librarian. As usual, the band elected officers for the year. They are as follows: Edward Snyder, President; David Spellerberg, Vice-President; David Stephan, Secretary-Treasurer.

Here's to the continued success of the Band, the pride and joy of the high school! Our thanks to you, Mr. Assenheimer, for your efficient leadership!

The Senior Orchestra

The Senior Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Assenheimer, has become one of the most successful organizations of our school. It practices every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

These faithful students and their director have always graciously consented to play at the many entertainments at the school throughout the year. It accompanied the vocal groups at the presentation of the operetta "Mount Vernon" and took part in the festival at Shelby on March 25.

As it is customary for organizations to be ruled by officers the members of the orchestra elected the following for the year: David Spellerberg, President; Mrvin Frank, Vice-President; and Kathleen Witzel, Secretary-Treasurer.

May we learn to better appreciate the splendid service you have always rendered!

The Senior Chorus

Formerly the chorus was open to anyone in Senior High School who wanted to participate, but this year the chorus consists of forty-seven boys and girls selected from the Glee Clubs. Primarily for this reason the chorus has left a fine record. Jane Kerr is our accompanist.

Our director, Mr. Assenheimer, organized this group early in September. It meets for rehearsal every Tuesday and Thursday the seventh period and has commemorated several appropriate musical selections for school entertainments and for the annual festival which was held this year at Bucyrus. They also presented the operetta "Mount Vernon."

Our appreciation to Mr. Assenheimer for his patience and guidance.

Girls' Glee Club

The Glee Club has increased its number to fifty-seven this year due to the fact that any girl in Senior High is eligible to join. It meets every Monday under the leadership of C. W. Assenheimer. Our pianist is Mary Jane Kail.

The Club has added its song to programs on many occasions and participated in the annual vocal festival at Bucyrus on March 8. It also assisted the other vocal groups in presenting the Senior Operetta.

We should appreciate the opportunity of being able to take part in such a fine organization.

Boys' Glee Club

Fourteen tenors and fifteen basses compose the Boys' Glee Club, with Mr. Assenheimer ably directing and Jane Kerr accompanying at the piano.

The boys have made valuable progress considering the fact that they meet only once a week. They have taken part in many activities both inside and outside of school. They participated in the annual festival at Bucyrus and in the Senior Operetta presented by all the vocal groups.

We are proud of our Boys' Glee Club and always welcome their pleasing performances.

Senior Operetta

February 22 was the date very appropriately chosen for the Senior Operetta "Mount Vernon," given by the Glee Clubs and Chorus and assisted by the High School Orchestra. The libretto was by F. H. Martens and the music by R. S. Stoughton. Miss Jean Golling had charge of the dramatics, Miss Mamie Stearns, the costumes; Miss Miner, the dances; Mr. Tschantz, the ticket sales; Miss Pease, make-up and Mrs. C. W. Assenheimer, the wigs. Accompanist was Jane Kerr. Stage and property men were Robert Binau, Craig Bowman, and Francis Hetzel.

Junior College Class

The Junior College class was organized in early fall with eleven members belonging. The officers were elected as follows: Russell Mewhorter, President; Miriam Schieffer, Vice-President; and Lloyd Failor, Secretary-Treasurer.

Although many of the members have dropped out, due to the fact that they received work or are attending school, the class is still carrying on in their publication of the High School paper. This experience gives a good foundation for those who are interested in journalism.

Our Farewell

*Another year is over,
But this is our last one,
It seemed such nice things happened
We wish it had just begun.*

*The teachers were so grand to us
And helped in every way;
They did for us so many things
We don't know what to say.*

*We'll miss our fellow-pupils,
But I doubt if we'll e'er forget,
The things we accomplished together
And the smiling faces we met.*

*We had plenty of hardships
We fought,—the battle's won.
But another one is here to greet us—
The battle of Life has begun.*

*We take this opportunity
In our year book, our last call;
To say to everyone that helped us,
"Thanks to one and all."*

JESSIE LONG.

Miss Stearns: I'm afraid I'll have to mark you zero for the month.

Kenny Smith: That means nothing to me.

P. Wilson: I'm continually breaking into song.

Mr. Assenheimer: If you'd get the key you wouldn't have to break in.

Mrs. Walberry (Waking up son for school): Eight o'clock! Eight o'clock!

Bob (Sleepily): You did? Better call a doctor!

Miss Pease: What happened to Babylon?

Wayne: It fell.

Pease: Nineveh?

Wayne: Destroyed.

Pease: And to Tyre?

Wayne: Punctured!

Jane F.: Suppose that chicken should lay an egg, would you give it to me?

Farmer's Son: No ma'am, I'd sell it to a museum. That chicken is a rooster.

Miss Stearns: How old would a person be who was born in 1888?

Ray: Was it a man or woman?

Kathleen: I wonder who this telegram is from?

Betty: Western Union. I recognize the handwriting.

Mr. Houpt: How many times have I told you not to be tardy?

Vernon: I don't know. I thought you were keeping track.

Ed: My girl has two faults.

Don I.: You and who else?

Katie: How do you study when Gerry is typing?

Joan: Oh, I just read a chapter between clicks.
